(1) Create at least the minimum number of jobs to create eligibility;

(2) File Form IT-WH at least 30 days prior to filing the Georgia Income Tax Return on which the credit will be claimed;

(3) File the Georgia Income Tax return by the due date (or extended due date) with a completed Form IT-CA to claim the Job Tax Credit for the Opportunity Zone;

(4) The Department of Revenue will send a letter to the business within 90 days of the date the Georgia Tax Return was filed stating the amount of credit available to claim against Withholding Taxes and when the business may begin claiming the credit; and

(5) The business claims the credit against its Georgia Withholding Taxes.

SIX FLAGS DRIVE COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TEXT

In an effort to encourage redevelopment in areas along Six Flags Drive between Factory Shoals Road and I-20 high density developments and mixed-use developments are encouraged. To facilitate this redevelopment, Cobb County is proposing a Redevelopment Overlay District (ROD) for the Six Flags Drive corridor from Factory Shoals Road to the I-20 interchange. The ROD regulations, which encourage compatible mixed-uses in redevelopment areas designated in the Comprehensive Plan, can be found in the Cobb County zoning code. The proximity and accessibility of this area to I-20, I-285, and downtown Atlanta and the age of the existing housing stock make it a prime candidate for redevelopment opportunities. Redevelopment fronting Six Flags Drive may require additional donation of right-of-way so that planned streetscape improvements can be implemented along the corridor. Refer to the Six Flags Road Corridor Study for additional details. See appendix map for ROD boundaries.

MABLETON COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TEXT

In recognition of the efforts to improve the quality-of-life of residents and businesses in the Mableton area, the Board of Commissioners encourages adherence to the fundamental principles of New Urbanism to reflect places where all people can live throughout their lifetime. Specific approaches to the design of social spaces, streetscapes, recreation and entertainment facilities, transportation options, retail and residential buildings that incorporate the needs of an aging population are especially promoted in this area as discussed during the Atlanta Regional Commissions Lifelong Communities Program.

With increasing life expectancies and varying levels of ability of the county's aging population, traditional building forms may be modified to reflect this new reality. Also connectivity, diversity of housing stock, range of transportation options, walkable environment and access to retail, social and health services that provide quality of life at younger ages, become essential for older adults. The Board of Commissioners supports staff coordination with other county departments and the community through public involvement to encourage these goals.

Due to the physical layout of Mableton, development effort will require assemblage and phased redevelopment. This area provides an excellent opportunity to develop innovative land management techniques such as land bank, land trust, tax allocation districts, or other such policies and programs that could assist in meeting this desire. This proposed design could substantially improve the areas economy and standard of living.

In addition, it is essential to repair the local infrastructure to provide the connectivity, diversity, and walkability missing in most of the Mableton area. Staff is committed to focusing on street network and safety in order to provide ample passive opportunities for healthy living and combining these with the flagship Mable House property enhancements this would provide an exemplary healthy living environment for Lifelong Communities.

The "HAWK" Pedestrian Hybrid Beacon at Six Flags Drive

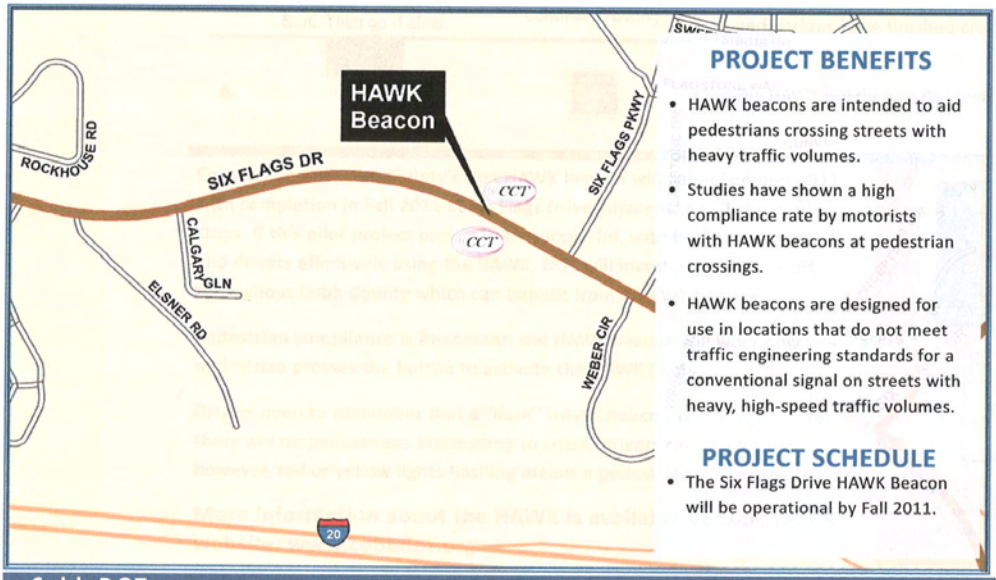
Cobb County places a high priority on pedestrian safety. For this reason the County is installing its first pedestrian hybrid beacon or "HAWK" beacon at Six Flags Drive near Cobb Community Transit's (CCT) Route 30 bus stop. "HAWK" is an acronym for High intensity Activated crossWalK.

For the pedestrian, the HAWK works similar to any button-activated traffic signal. It stops traffic to allow pedestrians to safely cross the road. The biggest difference, however, is for the driver; the HAWK beacon remains dark for traffic unless a pedestrian activates the push-button; no lights remain on or are flashing.

When the pedestrian presses the button, approaching drivers will see a FLASHING YELLOW for a few seconds, indicating to reduce speed and prepare to stop for pedestrians in the crosswalk.

The FLASHING YELLOW is followed by a STEADY YELLOW then by a STEADY RED, requiring motorists to STOP at the crosswalk stop line. At this time, pedestrians receive a WALK indication on the crosswalk countdown timer.

Illustration of a HAWK signal sequence on reverse



PROJECT BENEFITS

- HAWK beacons are intended to aid pedestrians crossing streets with heavy traffic volumes.
- Studies have shown a high compliance rate by motorists with HAWK beacons at pedestrian crossings.
- HAWK beacons are designed for use in locations that do not meet traffic engineering standards for a conventional signal on streets with heavy, high-speed traffic volumes.

PROJECT SCHEDULE

- The Six Flags Drive HAWK Beacon will be operational by Fall 2011.

aeg Feb 2011

Cobb DOT phone: 770-528-1600 email : cobbdot@cobbcounty.org web: www.cobbdot.org

The "HAWK" Pedestrian Hybrid Beacon

How does a HAWK operate?

	What Drivers See	What Pedestrians See
1.	DARK	Push the button.	The HAWK remains DARK for traffic until activated. While the HAWK is DARK, traffic can continue through without stopping.
2.	FLASHING YELLOW		When a pedestrian presses the cross-button, approaching drivers see a FLASHING YELLOW, indicating the beacon has been activated.
3.	STEADY YELLOW		The flashing yellow then changes to a STEADY YELLOW, indicating that motorists should reduce speed and be prepared to stop.
4.	STEADY RED	SAFE TO WALK Start crossing.	The solid yellow is followed by a double STEADY RED, requiring drivers to stop and allowing pedestrians to cross the road safely.
5.	ALTERNATING FLASHING RED Stop. Then go if clear.	FLASHING HAND Continue crossing.	The double solid red lights are followed by ALTERNATING FLASHING RED signals. During this time, vehicles may continue through the HAWK beacon after coming to a complete stop once pedestrians have finished crossing.
6.	DARK		The HAWK will then go dark until activated again.

Construction of Cobb County's first HAWK beacon will begin Summer 2011 with completion in Fall 2011 at Six Flags Drive adjacent to CCT route 30 bus stops. If this pilot project proves to be successful, with both pedestrians and drivers effectively using the HAWK, DOT will investigate future sites throughout Cobb County which can benefit from a HAWK beacon.

Pedestrian compliance is important: the HAWK beacon will work only when a pedestrian presses the button to activate the HAWK lights.

Drivers need to remember that a "dark" HAWK beacon is not a guarantee there are no pedestrians attempting to cross. Drivers can be certain, however, red or yellow lights flashing means a pedestrian is planning to cross.

More information about the HAWK is available at Cobb DOT's website: www.cobbdot.org

While slightly different in appearance, a HAWK Beacon operates like a conventional signal in that it stops traffic flow.
