

CANTON ROAD Current/Proposed Future Land Use

Proposed Future Land Use changes are the Community Activity Centers to Neighborhood Activity Centers, located along Canton Road from Dozier Rd. (south of Piedmont) to the Canton Rd./Canton Rd. Connector split and north of Red Oak Dr. (just north of Chastain Corners) to the Cherokee County Line. The Community Activity Center within the central business district (Piedmont Rd. north to Chastain Corners) will remain.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITY CENTER (CAC):
The purpose of the CAC is to provide for areas that can meet the immediate needs of several neighborhoods or communities. Typical land uses include low to medium intensity office, retail and commercial services.

NEIGHBORHOOD ACTIVITY CENTER (NAC):
The purpose of the NAC is to provide for areas that serve neighborhood residents and businesses. Typical land uses for these areas include small offices, limited retail and grocery stores.
